

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

For County Judge.....JAS. WALKER GIVENS
 " Clerk.....G. B. COOPER
 " Attorney.....J. B. PAXTON
 " Sheriff.....T. D. NEWLAND
 " Assessor.....E. D. KENNEDY
 " Jailor.....G. W. DEBORD

We are almost ashamed to say it, but candor and the hope that the warning may bring democrats to a realizing sense of the condition, compel us to admit that our county ticket is in serious danger, and unless the democracy will awaken from its lethargy and put on its fighting clothes, we will lose at least two of the offices. There is no reason for the present state of political affairs. The democratic ticket is composed of good men and true, men in every way the superiors of the most of those who are pitted against them. There ought not to be the least doubt of the election of a single one of them in this democratic county and there would not be save for treason in the camp and the fact that so-called democrats, who voted in the primary, are dishonest and mean enough to threaten to go over to the enemy. What good can possibly result to such if the republicans should win an office or so? Is Mr. Givens, for instance, responsible for any of these imaginary woes or disappointments? Can the election of Davidson heal or in any wise improve their condition? There is no patronage connected with the office. Sensible men should be governed by reason and we appeal to the dissatisfied and others who think they have a grievance to think calmly over the matter and not vote to turn the county over to an irresponsible "lawyer," who would do anything, promise anything, and even deny the Savior to make a vote. Fellow democrats, forewarned is forearmed. We have a fight before us. The man who carries the republican party in his vest pocket is letting no grass grow under his feet. He sneaks around by day and flies about at night, putting up the most piteous appeals and using every invention and fabrication to secure a vote. Don't be duped by such an individual, assert your democracy, stand by your principles and work from now until 4 o'clock the evening of the Nov. 6 for the election of the ticket that is composed of honest, capable, tried and true men.

The republicans in the 11th district are getting further and further apart. The three candidates met at Somerset Monday and each refused to divide time with the other. The created jayhawker, Hon. John D. White, got the C. H., first and spoke till noon, when he let up for dinner promising to resume the thread of his discourse at 1, but when he returned he found Colson had stormed his ramparts and captured them. There was therefore nothing for him to do but sit and wait till he got through, except to interrupt the speaker and call him a liar, when he thought he had lied. Colson, however, paid no attention to the charge of mendacity, as he said he could not afford to indulge in a personal row. While all this was going on Col. Adams, mounted on a goods box, was addressing the crowd out on the square and altogether it was a day long to be remembered by the Pulaski republicans. Mr. White made a proposition that the candidates submit their claims to arbitrators, but Colson declined his overtures. Col. Adams was favorable to it, however. There is now apparently no earthly prospect for an agreement and a withdrawal of any of the candidates, so it is safe to predict that George Erwin Stone will be the next Congressman from that rock-ribbed stronghold of republicans, the bloody Eleventh.

The ex-mayor of Middlesboro is experiencing with terrific force, the truth of the apothegm, "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." Mayor McDowell, who was also the cashier of a bank in the ex-mag city, is said to have paid devoted court to Miss Lou Bullock, a school marm from Maysville, who was teaching there. She claims that he promised to marry her and in fulfillment of that promise took her to the Four Seasons Hotel last May. They went to the parlor and he excusing himself with the remark, "I'll go for the magistrate and license," departed and was seen by the would-be bride no more, until she had him arrested for assault and battery. He proved out of that easy enough and since then she has had him arrested five times on various charges, the last for grand larceny. He was captured in Knoxville as a fugitive from justice and brought to Louisville, where the Miss Bullock, admitted that she was acting solely for revenge, and the case was dismissed. McDowell avers that he never promised the woman to marry her, but she swears by all that is good and holy that he did and by the eternal he shall suffer as he has made her suffer and "mid the vengeful fires of hell," as Whittier puts it, make his life to be forever a burden to him.

McKinley has been orating in Chairman Wilson's district, but Bourke Cochran is following him and undoing any devilment he may have done.

The news from New York is encouraging. The factions are getting together and Tammany and the county democracy are pooling their issues. Senator Hill is making a grand campaign and demonstrating his wonderful power as a leader and organizer and the chances are good that he will carry the State. The republicans are relying on Morton's barrel and his horde of calamity howlers, but they appear now to be the under dog in the fight. If Mr. Cleveland would show his democracy and prove his magnanimity by putting in some good words and work for the ticket, there would hardly be a doubt of the election of Hill to the governorship, which he has twice before honored.

This hard times from which we are now emerging were a legacy from the republican administration, the inevitable result of legislation against the interests of the people. All men who look at the question intelligently admit that. The democratic Congress has remedied matters to a great extent and lifted the burdens of many millions in taxation from the shoulders of the people. A vote for McCreary will show that you appreciate the efforts of him and his colleagues, and be but the just due of one of the very best men in the National Legislature.

A DISPATCH from Somerset says that Judge Morrow dissolved the injunction gotten from Judge Sanley by Col. Adams and returnable before the Somerset judge. This places Colson's name under the eagle and gives him great advantage, over the colonel, who is decidedly the strongest candidate. The news also comes that John D. White has withdrawn, after getting his party in the worst of pickles and entitling him to the plaudits of every good democrat.

The State Immigration Convention at Louisville is largely attended and the interest exhibited in attracting desirable people to the State is great. Gov. Buckner is chairman and Col. M. H. Crump secretary. The establishment of a State bureau for the publication and diffusion of facts and statistics of our great resources is urged. The meeting is still in session.

The Czarewitch is a man of ananogity. He hesitates about becoming ruler of all the Russias and spending the rest of his life dodging anarchist's bullets.

—There are over 13,000 republicans in Louisville according to the recent registration and of this number 8,723 are colored voters and 4,838 are white.

—Jacob Oldham, who apparently died and was prepared for burial at his home in Madison, surprised the mourners by coming to life and demanding to be let out of that.

—The Postmaster General has issued a circular letter to remind postmasters that the law against forced political contributions from postoffice employees will be enforced.

—Mrs. Boxley died on the road near Lewisburg, in a wagon and was buried by citizens, her husband being penniless. The family was moving from some point in Illinois to their old home in Tennessee.

—Four fires starting simultaneously at Elizabethtown created great excitement as it was thought that a general attempt to burn the town was being made. Several small residences and a stable were burned.

—O. J. Searcy, who has been under arrest at Cumberland, Md., accused of the Aquia Creek robbery, has made a partial confession, which led to the recovery of part of the booty. Morganfield has been further identified as Searcy's pal.

—The corner stone of a $25,000 Christian Church, at Georgetown, was laid Wednesday.

—San Diego, Cal., and the neighboring towns were visited by a series of earthquake shocks of more than ordinary severity.

—Several hundred people have been stricken down within the past few days by a mysterious plague in the Coeur d'Alene mining district.

—The Georgia Legislature has convened and will elect two United States Senators, Senator Walsh, now serving by appointment, will be elected to complete the present term. For the full term there are four candidates, with Hon. A. O. Bacon in the lead.

—Denver has the longest street railway cable in the world. The rope which acts as the motor for the Welton street line is 36,000 feet or about seven miles in length, being just 44 feet longer than the longest cable on the Broadway road in New York city.

—The State banks reporting to Secretary of State Headly for the quarter ending Oct. 1, show an increase of $2,629,984 in loans and discounts as compared with the corresponding quarter of 1893. Cash items decreased $524,507, and deposits increased $1,627,272.

—The Mason-Ford company, lessees of the convicts at the Eddyville prison, have notified the warden of the prison that they will no longer pay rewards for escaped convicts, nor provide each released convict with $5 and a suit of clothes as stipulated in the lease.

—Of two Chinese arrested in Chicago one was found to be carrying 34 railroad passes, which is regarded as evidence that he has been engaged in smuggling Chinese into the United States. Other Chinese have offered $500 for the death of the officers who arrested this man.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—The new 2:30 list has nearly 2,000 performers.

—Joe Coffey sold to John Johnson, of Boyle, a lot of fat cattle at 2 1/2c.

—John B. Foster bought of James Dunn his crop of corn at $2 delivered.

—The cotton crop of the South will reach 10,000,000 bales—the largest in her history.

—Henry of Navarre has gone lame and the big handicap at Oakley has been postponed indefinitely.

—The Democrat says there were 3,000 cattle on the Winchester market Monday. Best brought 4, but the general run was 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 with scrub down as low as 1 to 2c.

—Five carloads of Kansas wheat were sold in the Chicago market one day last week at 48 1/2 cents per bushel. After deducting the railway freight the owner received 29 1/2 cents per bushel for his grain.

—B. F. Hayden sold in Cincinnati Wednesday a car load of 225 pound hogs belonging to himself and Dr. J. B. Oswaley at 4 1/2c. They had been offered 4 1/2c here. The highest price paid that day was 4 1/2c, which was for a car load of red Berkshires.

—Now that almost the last peach on the Delaware peninsula has been marketed, growers are counting up the profits of an unusually small crop. The output of Kent county, Md., is computed to have been something over 60,000 baskets, and the growers realized $50,000.

—The first meeting of the Louisville Fair and Driving Association is proving a most successful one. Good crowds are attending and the sport is fine. The races are all hotly contested and only one or two have been won in straight heats. It took eight heats to decide the 2:11 pace, which was finally won by Frank Agar.

—Lottie Lorraine, owned by G. & C. P. Cecil, of Danville, was second. There are one or more specials on the cards each day and yesterday it was the great match race between the kings of pacers, Robert J. and John R. Gentry.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—No Democrat has any excuse for going back on a regularly constituted nominee of his party. The late Senator Beck once declared that he would vote against his brother if that brother were opposing a democratic nominee. There are a good many democrats in Kentucky who might profit by this saying of Senator Beck. A democrat who is not a democrat at all times and under all circumstances is worth very little to his party or his country.

—T. B. Demaree, of Madison county, prohibition candidate for Congress in the eighth district, did not comply with the law governing the filing of petitions to get his name on the poll books, and for that reason his name may not appear on the ballots. Mr. Demaree presented only one petition to his home county clerk, when he should have sent one signed by 400 voters to each clerk in the district.

—If the next Congress is not democratic all that democracy has accomplished will stand condemned and all that it proposes will be negated. Do you want to return to hard times? If not don't vote against McCreary.

—The Centre College football team defeated the Bethel College eleven, of Russellville, by a score of 110 to 0. This is said to be the largest score ever made in a foot ball game.

—The most unique Sunday school in the world is on the line of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad among the telegraphers. The regular lesson is used, and all the questions and answers are given by wire.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Elder Gowen was sick and couldn't commence the Hustonville meeting Sunday, but we learn he will be on hand next Sunday.

—Dr. Martin, of Illinois, is holding a meeting at the New Christian Church, Covington, which has drawn 25 to the fold at last accounts.

—Rev. J. W. Tyler will preach at the Presbyterian church again next Sunday. The meeting at Georgetown being held by Rev. S. M. Logan is progressing finely.

—Elder J. G. Livingston writes that Uncle Sammy Spoonmore made the good confession at Goshen Sunday and was baptized by him in Dix River Monday. The old gentleman is over 80 years old but is still as active as most men are at 60.

—Revs. W. B. Ragan and W. J. Harnsey are holding a glorious revival at East Bernstead and have written to Rev. L. M. Lasley to come up and assist them. The meeting has been in progress 10 days and there have been over 100 conversions.

—Elder W. E. Crabtree, of Lexington, is preaching to crowds which test the capacity of the Christian church and all who hear him are pleased with his clear and eloquent expounding of the Scriptures. There have been no additions yet, but a deep interest is being aroused.

—Mecca was visited last year by between 250,000 and 300,000 pilgrims, a much larger number than usual, as the principal day of the pilgrimage happened to fall on Friday; 90,000 came by sea, of whom nearly 10,000 died of cholera, while of those who went by land, most of them from British India, 15,000 perished. The mortality was 10 per cent. of all the pilgrims.

—He Couldn't Be in Love. The director of a certain bank received his cashier one morning with an evidently discomposed face.

"Sir," said he, "I am unable to hide from you longer that which is on my heart." (The banker grows pale.) "I am in love with your daughter."

Now the banker breathes freely, but adds: "Are you sure you never make mistakes?"

"Indeed, sir, I never do."

"Then I refuse you her hand, for you can't be in love."

—Alex Sweet, in Texas Sittings.

Her Devotion to a Cause.

"Marguerite," he murmured, "will you be mine?"

"Harold," she answered, "I believe in the emancipation of our sex. My zealous devotion to the cause compels me to insist upon what may, to you, seem a punctilious absurdity."

"Nothing you say can seem absurd," he protested.

"Modesty forbade me," she went on, "to frame the original question. But now that you have spoken there is no impropriety in my offering an amendment. Do not ask me if I will be yours; ask me if I will permit you to be mine."
